ANTIQUITIES

It is forbidden to export antiquities and works of art found in Greece, with the exception of a very few categories for which a special license from the Ministry of Culture is required. If a traveller is found in possession of antiques or works of art without an export license, the object will be confiscated and the offender will be prosecuted.

For more information, please contact the Rhodes Archaeological Service in the Medieval Town, Tel: (+30) 22410 25500

CATHOLIC SERVICES

The Catholic church of Santa Maria, located at Neochori (on the corner of Kathopouli and Dragoumi Sts) holds services from April to October at 7am on weekdays and at 8am, 11am and 7pm on Sundays.

St. Francisco church, located close to the Stadium of Rhodes, on Dimokratias St, celebrates mass from April to October at 8:30am on weekdays and 10am on Sundays. During the winter both churches hold Mass only on Sundays.

HEALTH CARE

Rhodes has many doctors of all specialities. Some see patients only at their private surgeries, where payment will be expected. There are also many doctors that work for the Greek National Health Service (ESI) at the General Hospital "Andreas Papandreou" in Ag. Apostoli and in various Health Centers across the island. The General Hospital's Accident & Emergency unit is open 24hrs a day. There is also a good number of pharmacies in Rhodes town and in the villages of the island.
